Hyrum Moulton

HEBER — Hyrum Moulton, 71, an operator at the Heber Municipal Light and Power plant, died at a Heber hospital Tuesday at 7:15 a.m. after an extended illness.

He was born Feb.
 12, 1880, at Heber a son of William Denton and Mary Ann Davis Moulton.

In his early life
 he worked as foreman of the Silver
 King Mill in Park City, and had been an operator at the power plant since it was built in 1909.

He was a high priest in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

He married Mary
 C. Hicken April 23, 1902, in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. Plans were being made to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary in April.

Mrs. Moulton survives with seven sons and daughters: H. R. Moulton and Mrs.
 Marvel Neeley, Salt Lake City; Mrs.
 Blanche Hawke, Provo; Mrs. Leah Calder, Bountiful; and Glen, Dean and Donna Moulton, Heber; 20 grandchildren; the following brothers and sisters, William D. Moulton, Heber; Moroni Moulton, Salt Lake City; Mrs. Olive Burbridge, Blanche
 Smith and Mrs. Lucella Crouse, Salt Lake City; Mrs. Bertha Bowman, Blackfoot, Ida., and Earl Smith, Heber and one step-brother and sister, Sylvian Smith, Heber, and Lou Kelly, Salt Lake City.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday at 1 p.m. in the Wasatch State Tabernacle, by N. C. Watson, bishop of Heber Second Ward.

Friends may call at the family residence, 242 West 1st South, Friday evening and Saturday prior to services.

Burial will be in Heber Cemetery attended by Otto Mortuary.
